Tragic night on bridge

An estimated 100 cars, several containing Quad-City area residents, were trapped in traffic on Interstate 270 at the Mississippi River bridge for over seven hours in below-freezing weather after a series of three accidents at about 2 a.m. Saturday. One man was killed and several were injured.

St. Louis police reported the problems began at 1:30 a.m. Saturday when the westbound car of Kenneth Leible, 26, St. Louis, was struck from behind by the auto of Kenneth Leible, 20, Bellefontaine Neighbors, Mo., on I-270 just west of the state dividing line.

About 15 youths in trailing cars got out and started throwing beer cans from Leible's car over the bridge. Leible was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Moments later, a truck carrying 7,800 gallons of gasoline was unable to stop for the traffic jam and the cab of the gasoline truck went under the trailer of the tractor-trailer of Henry Moore, 43, who had stopped for the first accident. The gasoline trailer did not rupture. But the driver, Michael E. Hahne, 24, Washington, Mo., was caught in his crushed cab and was killed. Rescue workers

Dies after falling into diaper pail

Fourteen-month-old Sarah Beth Wellmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen (Rita) Wellmeyer, 2473 St. Clair Ave., died at 11:20 a.m. Sunday at St. Louis Children's Hospital where she had been since falling into a pail of water Thursday evening.

Granite City ambulance personnel were called to the Wellmeyer home at 6:45 p.m. Thursday where the parents were attempting to revive their daughter, who had stopped breathing.

Both the mother and father had taken cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) training and were breathing into the child.

Granite City Ambulance attendants were told the parents missed the child and began looking for her, finding her head-first in a diaper pail which was full of water.

The mother, father and attendants Robert Mink and Daniel Worthen took turns administering CPR to keep her alive to St. Elizabeth Hospital. Water was pumped out of her lungs.

Federal steel action predicted

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Press-Record Staff Writer

Predictions that the federal government will act soon to control massive importing of steel into the U.S. market and will "allow a more realistic pricing policy for steel in 1978," were made by Miss Lillian B. Green, economic consultant to National Steel Corp., during Thursday's meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club.

Miss Green is in charge of the Analytical Department of National Steel, which analyzes financial trends and pricing policies.

She also told the meeting that the government will take all necessary steps in 1978 to avoid a recession.

"Jimmy Carter cannot stand a recession or he will never get re-elected in 1980," she also predicted that incentive programs will be started next

Defends prosecution

Calling for a grand jury investigation, Nicholas G. Byron, states attorney of Madison County, asserted Thursday that the recent Law Enforcement Commission report respecting criminal justice in Madison County has, in his opinion, done the people of the county a great disservice.

"The report purports to be a thorough, updated evaluation of this area."

"In fact, it is three years behind and does not properly evaluate the high quality of justice in Madison County, which not only has stopped rising crime but is dramatically reducing it," Byron contended.

"Many of us law enforcement officials are expressing concern that this report may be curbing the deterrent effect of our efforts and leading criminals to believe that they can commit crime in this county without risk."

"We emphasize that this is not the case. Because continued media coverage of some of the in-

Years of dedication required for ballet

Thirteen years is a long time unless they are spent doing something that is fun.

Karen Stawar, 2569 Buenger Boulevard, Granite City, has been taking ballet lessons since she was in the first grade and has enjoyed it. She is considering making dance her career, either performing or teaching.

"I'm working on a minor in dance, and enjoy teaching an adult class for Irene Gintautas. But after SUE, I don't know."

"Right now I enjoy putting together dances and then performing them. I get a good feeling of accomplishment during and after performing for an audience," she comments.

Miss Stawar is currently studying dance at the local university. She began dancing in Caseyville with the Gintautas studio 13 years ago.

"I travel ten miles to dance rehearsals but it's worth it," she said.

Besides going to SUE full-time and taking lessons privately twice a week, she is a featured dancer with the Community Civic Ballet Company, for which she auditioned in 1974.

On Sunday, Nov. 20, she will be a soloist in the company's production of Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" and also in the traditional Christmas ballet, "The Nutcracker." The performance will be held at the Communications Building Theater at SUE at 8 p.m.

Performing has given Karen Stawar a self-confidence which authorities say is especially apparent when she dances for an audience. She seems bashful until she appears on stage; then, the grace and technique required for her position as a featured dancer with the

CURIOSITY
GOT THE CAT

That's how the old saying has it. Kids have that in common with cats—CURIOSITY. Medicines, both prescribed and over-the-counter, are generally not for children. They should be kept out of reach so as not to tempt inquiring fingers. Admonitions sometimes create curiosity where none existed, so just plain out of sight and reach protects innocent lives.

Police dispute salary figures

Reports of salary costs involved in negotiations between Granite City and employees of the Police Department, prepared by the City Council's Negotiating Committee, were challenged today in a statement in behalf of the Police Department Local 1567. The statement particularly challenged the addition of a $300,000 tax levy for police pension purposes to a list of salary and fringe benefit payments in computing cost of annual payments to each man. The Negotiating Committee said that salary and fringe benefits, including the pension levy, averaged $22,949 per man. In its statement, the union said:

"In a recent Press-Record article it was brought to the public's attention about the raising of city employees. In 1977 the city of Granite City budgeted $300,000 at the request of the State Board of Insurance, who govern the rules of the Police Pension fund of Illinois municipalities. 'The reason $300,000 was put in this year's budget is because the City failed to meet its financial responsibility to the fund in the past several years. This was done to make the overall budget look more attractive to the public for those years. 'Now the city Negotiating Committee has decided to use the $300,000 during negotiations as part of the salary of a police officer, inflating the salary to $22,949. 'The actual salary which includes hospitalization, life insurance, clothing allowance and Police Pension is $18,167.00. The take-home pay before taxes is $15,000. This salary is based on the average police officer with five years experience, which is printed in the Press-Record at the end of every fiscal year. 'We can appreciate the efforts of the Negotiating Committee from the City Council, which may feel it has the best interest of the city at heart, but we also feel that it is unfair and an insult to our intelligence for that committee to inflate our salaries in an attempt to gain public sympathy. All we ask is they tell it like it is.'"

Pre-registration for Belleville Area College's Madison Extension Center will be Nov. 14, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22 and 23 between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. at Madison Senior High School, 6th and Farish Streets, Room 109. Spring semester classes (beginning in January) to be offered at Madison include: Preparing your income tax (free); ethnic cultures, beginning Mideastern dance (Bellydancing); advanced Mideastern dance; photography I; photography II; beginning astrology; volleyball; home air conditioning and refrigeration; and General Educational Development test preparation classes. Fees for the classes range from $20 to $33, depending on the length of the course and credit given. Although the classes are not offered for transfer credit, they are assigned "general studies" credit by the state's community college system. Further information may be obtained from Charles Stepiet, Madison extension center coordinator, at 876-7016.

Madison students attend symposium

Students in the Humanities and American Problems classes at the Madison High School attended a symposium at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The students were: Brenda Means, Jeri Echols, Debbie Ellis, Andria Zepoff, Rick Robbins, Bonnie Fisk, Crickett Dandridge, Truvill Williams, Juan Gardner, Anthony London, and Jackie Riley. The symposium was on "The Dignity of Death" conducted by Charles A. Corr, associate professor in the department of philosophic studies. The students were accompanied by their teacher, John Harrison and have been studying a unit on death.

Many schools across the country have added a course on death into the curriculum as it was found that many young people have extreme difficulty coping with death in their family and among friends, according to a school spokesman. Corr has been teaching a course, "Death and Dying" at SUE for the past three years.

year to ease unemployment by encouraging industry to expand and hire more employees.

"The politician understands high unemployment. There is a way out. They can make it possible for steel, aluminum and other producers to expand and still make a profit."

She said the time is ripe for tax incentives and other programs to encourage industry to purchase additional equipment, since most industries have avoided major capital expenditures the past few years due to economic uncertainties of fuel costs and other factors.

"If plant equipment spending had been normal for the past few years, I don't know where it would go," she added.

"In 1974, there was a tremendous shortage of production capacity in this country and the world. Shortly thereafter, there will be another shortage of capacity," she said in emphasizing the need for plants to increase equipment spending.

She described the basic steel industry as "a capital intensive" one, saying that vast amounts of money must be expended to keep plants operating. "You cannot operate half of a blast furnace. You cannot turn it off half the time or the lining would be destroyed. You have to keep it going."

"The last time we relined a blast furnace, which has to be done about every three years, the cost was over $5 million for the work. Today you could not do the same job for $20 million."

The steel industry must have proper pricing. Steel pricing is under government control and keeps getting batted down. Hopefully there will be a more realistic pricing policy in 1978 so investors can earn the same return on their investments as in other industries.

"We are counting on a tax cut in mid-1978," Miss Green told the Optimists.

She noted a "trend toward protectionism" in the United States, "without recognizing the fact that this is one world. It is an interdependent world and the U.S. is an oasis."

"We will not long remain an oasis if the rest of the world is limping along. Western Europe has tremendous problems with unemployment and lack of a growth rate."

"Western Europe pays $50 billion a year for oil and that is money which is badly needed for other things industries people. The United States cannot close the door. This is an interdependent world," she stated.

Any long-term solution to unfair steel pricing must be worldwide, she said, adding, "We have never seen the discounts below prime prices on steel, even in the competitive 1960s. The U.S. is asking only fair competition, not subsidized competition."

"Most of our profits are spent meeting EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) and OSHA (Federal safety office) requirements. Our cash flow is limited. Profits are hurt by inflation. We cannot match the price of the imported steel."

"In the short term, the government will do something next year. They have no alternative. There are 50 steel communities in the U.S. and there already are 60,000 displaced persons due to steel imports."

"British Steel Co. will lose $1 billion dollars this year. They have already said they cannot afford to continue as 'pensioners of state' which is what the steel industry is becoming."

"In the long term, there are basic problems which affect the total economy—conditions that have to be changed. Seventy-five per cent of the federal budget is out of control. It is for the military, space and other programs. With the rest, will they do anything to stimulate business? We will know soon."

She said Jimmy Carter must react from "political expediency. He will flip-flop to keep the economy going. A tax bill will begin to stimulate investments."

"This will not help the steel industry much, because it has been financially drained for years and will take some time to catch up."

"There are answers to the questions. The public just isn't asking the right questions yet," Mrs. Green asserted.

G. H. Sternberg, program chairman, announced a membership drive is underway and membership co-chairman Bill Monical showed a "Hall of Fame" book which is to be awarded to the member bringing in the most new members.

However, the grace has come from the part of dancing that Karen likes least.

"I don't like the barre work. I really like the important, but I don't like it," she discloses.

Barre work is the part of dancing comparable to an athlete's warm-up. It is done in the "barre"—the pole attached to the wall.

There, the dancer stretches and does a series of slow exercises to prepare the muscles of the legs, arms and back for more strenuous dancing.

Her life seems to center around dance. She has worked hard at it, and her work has qualified her for major roles with the company. But the good parts are not the most important feature of dance, in her opinion.

"What makes it worthwhile is that it is a way of expressing yourself. And besides, I get a good feeling out of it."

Sewer gas fumes. Force evacuation

Several customers and employees at the Libson Shop, 1321 Nineteenth St., and The Children's Shop, 1311 Nineteenth St., were forced to evacuate the retail business firms at 10:40 a.m. Friday, when a strong odor of gas was detected inside the buildings.

Firefighters were summoned and a fire official requested everyone leave the stores as a precautionary measure. Mrs. Isabella Southwick, manager of The Children's Shop said.

It has since been learned the odor was being emitted from a sewer in which a maintenance man had placed a cleaning substance.

As a safeguard, the firemen turned off a number of gas meters inside the buildings. The meters were reactivated by Illinois Power Company.

personnel who investigated the suspected gas leak and found the source of the odor was derived from the sewer, according to Carl E. Mathias, IPC area service manager.

A blower was used by the fire department to dissipate the fumes which were heavier inside the Libson Shop.

Most of the employees waited in nearby stores until the "all clear" signal was given by the firemen to return to work. Mrs. Southwick said.

Tragic night

required four hours to remove his body from the wreckage.

As westbound traffic continued to back up, an unidentified woman driver seemed to avoid stopped cars and her auto struck the retaining wall of the bridge.

She was not seriously injured, but rescue workers said the auto hit the wall hard enough to imprint her license plate number in the concrete.

Although the accidents did not affect the eastbound lanes, police closed them to traffic so that rescue vehicles could reach the scene.

The tieup was primarily in a narrow section of the bridge where a concrete retaining wall separates the eastbound and westbound lanes. The traffic backup stretched across Route Three.

A shortage of policemen to manage the traffic resulted in lengthy delays, during which motorists had to rely upon their car heaters to stay warm.

Many ran out of fuel complicating the problem of getting the vehicles off the bridge.

Citizen band radio operators conversed freely during the night, relaying progress reports on the cleanup operations and suggestions on how the snarled traffic could be removed.

Police started directing autos at the rear of the traffic jam to back up, turn around and go the wrong way down the Route Three exit.

Tractor-trailer trucks, however, could not be turned around in the limited space and officials were afraid to back them up nearly a mile to the exit, for fear some would jackknife and keep the highway blocked longer.

Cars continued to back from the congested area, until the removal reached a point where two tractor-trailers were parked side-by-side, blocking both lanes.

Police reported one car at the rear of the mass was able to turn around at about 4 a.m. and began to depart from the bridge, striking the patrol car of St. Louis County Patrolman Norris Benoit.

Benoit was taken to Christian Northeast Hospital for treatment and after driver, Randy J. Davis, 22, of 2240 Aubrey Ave., was ticketed for driving too fast for conditions.

Davis then was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was admitted for observation of head injuries, including an abrasion to the forehead.

Madison County deputies, who had not been requested for help, volunteered their efforts at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and had helped unsnarl the traffic by 9 a.m.

Released on bond

Boyd M. Clark, 17, of 2814 Buxton Ave., was charged with disorderly conduct after he allegedly threatened to blow up a security guard and then threw a can of black gun powder at the guard on the parking lot at 11:40 p.m. Friday, Nov. 11, 1977, at Colman's Restaurant, Nameoki Road and Madison Avenue, at 9:15 p.m. Friday.

The guard told police he had stopped a youth near cars in the parking lot and the youth became disorderly. He allegedly took a can of gun powder from his pocket and said it had a wick in it.

After the powder was thrown, the guard caught Clark and held him until police arrived. He was released at 10:30 p.m. Friday after posting $25 bond.

Murder

An internal hemorrhage near his right kidney also was found.

Two children walking along the levee discovered Mr. White floating face-down in the canal. They ran home and notified their father. He checked the location of the body and called the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Deputies called for a deputy coroner and Werner pronounced Mr. White dead at the scene at 1:35 p.m. Sunday.

State police said this morning the case is under investigation. Funeral arrangements were uncertain today.

Collage display

By LORENZO BUFORD
Robert Reed's work is like looking in a family album. Each collage represents a mood, a particular moment and his language.

A Yale professor, he is an artist and an educator. Presently, he has an exhibition in the O'Connell Lounge of the University Center at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

His work has been influenced through his interactions with others, problems he has heard and reflected upon, and places he has traveled.

Currently, he is visiting at SIUE through the courtesy of the department of art and design. He feels this exhibition is giving him the chance to express his ideas, to work on new creations and be in contact with students — to learn from them, as well as to teach.

He believes man is both educator and teacher. Art is his visual communication with others. Though language is the basic form of communication, symbols play an important part in our daily lives, he believes. He says man unconsciously reacts to symbolic stimulation.

Reed was asked to describe himself. He is an artist. His work reflects general and personal life.

He is a quiet person, practical in his outlook, searching through his work for some understanding of what life is all about, and he utilizes his association with people.

Reed does not want interviews where questions are asked and he answers. He wants to speak with someone, to learn as well as educate and to create another page in his album of life.

As we talked of many things, he watched the various art students working around him. For him, it was a moment to become a student of their creation.

His work is collage, which is pasting, mounting and sizing. It is his invitation to look into his private life. To look at his creations, he is looking at the essence of Robert Reed. His exhibition at SIUE will continue until Nov. 28.

Surgical nurse major

Authorization to offer a new degree program, the master of science with major in medical-surgical nursing, was granted Thursday to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville by the SIUE Board of Trustees, subject to approval by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

This program was approved by the Board of Trustees at its June meeting at a reasonable and moderate extension of the existing master's-level program in nursing. At the same meeting, the board also approved the School of Nursing's new and expanded program request for fiscal year 1979, which included $18,000 in new state funds to support the program.

No change in program or in the funding requested to support it is involved in the conversion from specialization to major.

Currently the master's program in nursing offers a clinical specialty in psychiatric-community mental health nursing. The new degree program would give graduate students a choice as to preparation for medical-surgical advanced nursing practice or for advanced psychiatric nursing practice. A feasibility study conducted by the School of Nursing during the summer of 1976 indicated 74 area nurses were interested in personally pursuing graduate preparation in medical-surgical nursing. The new graduate-level courses are being developed in response to this as well as to meet one of the objectives of the School of Nursing's mission and scope statement.

The objective cited is to develop additional specialty areas in the graduate program. It is supported by the Illinois Implementation Commission on Nursing and the Illinois Board of Higher Education Master Plan-Phase IV.

Development of the program was coordinated with the School of Dental Medicine, which will be involved in teaching some of the courses proposed.

The resolution adopted Thursday stipulates that the action be reported to the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education, requesting that the program be included in the new and expanded program request for 1978-79.

Education week observed in area this week

Madison, Venice and Granite City schools will hold open houses and encourage parent visits today through Friday in observance of American Education Week.

At 2 p.m. Tuesday, a special program in Venice by students will be presented in the gym. Parent conferences with teachers are scheduled Thursday from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. A series of open house programs will be held in the Madison schools on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Each Granite City school also will have visitations and parents are being asked to contact the particular school of interest for details on the various programs.

Whooping cough in Alton area spreading to Jersey

Since Aug. 22, 70 cases of whooping cough have been reported in Madison County — 43 of them in the past month according to Dr. Paul Q. Peterson, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health. Most have been in the Alton area.

"This figure, coupled with 45 cases in St. Clair County, brings the downstate (Illinois) total, since July 1, to 131," he said. During the first half of 1977, nine cases of whooping cough were reported downstate, bringing the year-to-date total to 140 — 115 of which have been reported from St. Clair and Madison Counties.

The downstate total for all of 1976 was 25 cases, 16 of them reported between July 1 and Dec. 31.

Peterson said more than 90 per cent of the cases in Madison County this year have been reported in the Alton area, and nearly all the victims are under six years of age.

During the past week, five cases of whooping cough have been reported in Jersey County and Peterson cautioned that the Madison County outbreak may be spreading. Jersey County borders the northwest corner of Madison County.

He pointed out that, in St. Clair County this year, 44 cases of whooping cough occurred between Aug. 10 and Oct. 4.

"An aggressive immunization program was conducted by the East Side Health District and the St. Clair County Medical Society, with assistance from the state health department," he said, "and only one additional case has been reported in St. Clair County since Oct. 4."

Peterson said the state health department stands ready to assist area health agencies and private physicians in conducting public immunization programs wherever they are needed.

"The assistance we are prepared to render," he said, "include providing vaccine and consent forms, helping to organize clinics and announcing them to the public and, for large clinics, administering injections."

Peterson emphasized that whooping cough is a preventable disease, and "the key to prevention throughout the state is the immunization of infants and pre-schoolers."

He urged parents of infants and pre-school-aged children to check the children's immunization records, and visit a physician or public immunization clinic if the whooping cough immunizations are not up to date.

"The series of DPT inoculations will protect a child from this debilitating disease," Peterson said. The DPT vaccine protects against diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough) and tetanus.

A series of three inoculations, given about a month apart, should be started when a child is about three months old, with boosters during the second year and at four or five years of age, he said. "The series can be started in children up to five years of age, however, and should be if the child has not been immunized," Peterson said.

He added that whooping cough is especially dangerous to infants and very young children. "If an infant or very young child has not been vaccinated, and is exposed to the disease, temporary protection with drugs may be needed," he said.

State to install red flasher light at Venice intersection

Mayor William Ebersold announced at the Venice council meeting last week that the State of Illinois will install a flashing overhead red light at Broadway, Klein and Fourth streets.

The stop signs cannot always be seen and I think this will add much to the safety of our citizens with the flashing red lights and the stop signs," Ebersold said.

The council signed the annual street maintenance agreement with the Illinois Division of Highways allowing up to $50,000 from motor fuel tax monies for street maintenance from Jan. 1, 1978, through Dec. 31, 1978.

Action on a business license for Clarence Sadler, 153 Lee Wright Homes, to operate a shoe shine parlor at 1101 Logan St., was delayed until the Tuesday, Nov. 22, meeting.

John Henry Williams, president of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) asked, "Why do you have to wait on this another week?"

Alderman John Ervin explained, "Alderman George Lewis is not present tonight and since it is in his ward, he should know about it before we take a vote."

Mckinley Bridge Manager Tom Fields said the monthly bridge traffic for October was 27,400 vehicles, or 49 daily average of 8,500. He said this is 1,600 over the daily average of October 1976.

"Traffic is up and is not

200 colleges will meet with area students

Juniors and seniors from area high schools who are considering post-secondary education are being encouraged to attend the St. Louis National College Fair by Eugene Magae, SIUE assistant director of admissions and records.

The fair will be held at the St. Louis Gateway Convention and Exhibition Center, 801 Convention Plaza. It will be open tomorrow from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. and from 6 until 9 p.m. On Wednesday, the hours of the fair will be 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Representatives from more than 200 colleges, universities, junior and community colleges, as well as vocational and technical schools will be on hand to provide information on the educational opportunities at their institutions.

Group and individual counseling sessions will be available to students attending the fair, along with sessions providing financial assistance information.

"We feel this will be a valuable experience for young men and women who are contemplating continuing their education after high school," Magae said. Parents of the students also are being encouraged to attend.

pre-conference library panel

Alan J. Dixon, secretary of state and the state librarian, has appointed an advisory and planning committee for the Illinois Pre-White House Conference on Library and Information Services, to be held in the fall of 1978.

Dixon said the committee will plan and organize the conference, designed to establish state goals for the future of Illinois libraries.

The 46-member committee is headed by two co-chairmen, Willard Lee, Springfield, and Donald Wright, Evanston. The committee includes 10 other residents of Springfield and 12 Chicagoans. Donald Vancover of Belleville is one of the 46.

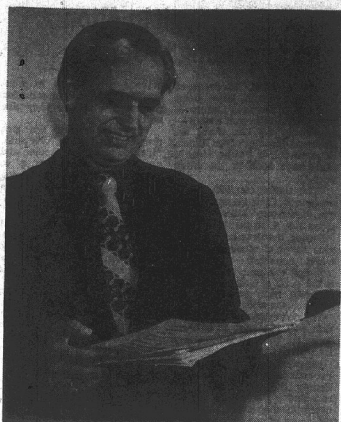

A national White House Conference on Library and Information Services, to be held in September 1979, has been directed by Congress to "develop recommendations for the further improvement of the nation's libraries and information centers and their use by the public."

Dixon said the pre-White House conference in Illinois will be designed to insure that recommendations of the Illinois public will be heard at the White House conference.

Two-thirds of the participants will be citizens not associated with libraries; one-third will be connected with information science.

Representatives from all levels of government, educators, other professional groups, business and industrial groups, and members of the general public will participate in the national meeting.

A pre-White House conference will be held in each state.

'God's Favorite' play this weekend

What would happen if a modern-day industrialist were faced with the trials of Job? Would he retain his faith in God? How would his family respond?

Belleville Area College's fall play, "God's Favorite," in the Neil Simon tradition of comedy explores these questions and their sometimes hilarious answers on Friday through Sunday, Nov. 18, 19 and 20, in the college theater at 2500 Carlyle Road.

The play's central character, Joe Benjamin, a New Jersey factory owner, receives a midnight visit from Sidney Lipton, God's messenger. Lipton delivers only important documents, no packages—and is informed that God plans to test his faith by making his life increasingly miserable.

Joe subsequently endures the loss of his factory, his money, his mansion and his health. By the third act, he can barely walk or talk, and he complains of an "ail in hoo" (nail in shoe) through battered and chapped lips.

His greatest trial, though, is his family, all of whom find it difficult to believe that the weirdo who has arrived on the scene wearing galoshes and a sweatshirt with a big G on the chest is actually God's messenger.

The play ends on a positive and surprising note, with lots of laughs plus touching and poignant moments along the way.

The New York Daily News called the play "awesomely funny... and rather sweet and healing," while the New York Times said of Simon, "His jokes have a kind of hilariously deadpan ecstasy... and even better, are taken from life."

The Christian Science Monitor's review, "An uproarious morality play for a secular age," will put to rest any doubts in the minds of religious people about the intent of the comedy. As director Alan Friedman states, "Even the non-believing son has come around by the end of the play."

Friedman notes that, although the two have similarities in theme and both are highly humorous, "God's Favorite" is not a stage version of the currently popular movie, "Oh, God." "I can't conceive of anyone who sees the play from start to finish being offended by it," he adds.

Joe Benjamin is played by R. Kingston Schmid; Len Adams will play Sidney Lipton, God's messenger; John Reeves will play the part of David Benjamin, the non-believing son; Nancy Foster takes the part of Rose, Joe's hard of hearing wife; Karen Sandefur is Sarah, the daughter; and Chuck Heing is Ben Benjamin, the other son. Curtain time for the play is 8 p.m. Admission is $1.

Warriors come from behind twice to gain finals

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Mon., Nov. 14, 1977 Page 10

South nabs second straight state title

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor
Way back on Sept. 25, a rag-tag bunch of soccer players from Chicago Schurz High came down to Granite City for a three-game trip against some area schools. One of them was Granite City South.

The result of that game was a massacre the likes of which hasn't been seen since Custer.
That is, until Saturday night.
For it was on that night that South came through against that same Schurz squad for a 6-1 victory that had the nets burning enough to almost heat the sub-freezing temperature in Huskie Stadium at Northern Illinois University.

The result of all that effort?
The 1977 Illinois state soccer
championship.

The Warriors grabbed their second straight state title, but it wasn't an easy task.

It took two consecutive fourth-quarter comebacks by South in the Warriors' first two games to even give them a chance at the title game Saturday night. They had to come from behind to beat both
New Trier East and Wheaton
Central by identical 2-1 scores.

South 2, New Trier East 1
Quarterfinal
New Trier East 1 0 0 0-1
SOUTH 0 1 0 1-2
NT-David Dickey (11:02 1st)
S-David Goldschmidt (11:02 1st)
(21:33 2nd)
S-Greg Fiegl (from M. Goldschmidt and Fernandez (66:42 4th))

South vs. New Trier

Both teams went into their quarterfinal clash with just one thing on their minds: neutralize the big man.

For New Trier, it was a superb back, David Dickey. For the Warriors, it was high-scoring Greg Fiegl. Both efforts somewhat failed.

Both Dickey and Fiegl got their goals. But it was a deflected shot by South's David Goldschmidt in the second quarter which proved to be the difference.

The meeting of the two teams had received advanced billing as perhaps the "championship in the first round." The predictions couldn't have been more right.

THE INDIANS of Coach Tony Shinto came out with everything they had. All-state Bert Sullivan staged his own little show — along with South's own Joe Theis.

But the remaining attraction for New Trier East was Dickey.
Although he stands just 5-11, he was all the Warriors could handle.

At the 8:58 mark of the first quarter, he ended South's string of 21 consecutive scoreless quarters. Dickey blasted a free kick into the upper right corner of the net, just beyond the diving hand of Warrior goalie Barry Briggs.

THE HIGH WINDS of Northern Illinois then took charge.
In the second quarter, the Warriors had the wind advantage and used it. John Prazma found David Goldschmidt in the clear and sent him a pass that Goldschmidt blasted into the right corner.

But it wasn't until the 13:18
mark of the fourth period that the final outcome was decided.
That's when the opponents lost their "control" over Fiegl.

The 6-4 Fiegl volleyed the ball past the sprawling New Trier East goalie, Rich Dumont, after taking a pass from Mark Goldschmidt.

That was that.

The opponent for the Warriors
in the quarterfinals was a team that quite frankly hadn't impressed many of the coaches before the game.

WHEATON CENTRAL, last year's state runnerup, had narrowly defeated Gordon Tech in the quarterfinals 1-0 on a fourth-period penalty kick.
Thus, the reason for not being impressed. Everyone, that is, except South Coach Gene Baker.

"There are no breathers once you get up here," he said before the game. "They (Wheaton)

South 2, Wheaton Central 1

S-Fred Schuler, from Derosse and Fiegl (6:42 4th)

have a fine team and I think it'll be a good game."

It was a good game. . . if you're a fan.

But if you're the coach of one of the teams involved, it's ulcer time.

The Warriors had to really dig deep and pull one out of their magic bag to win. They did.
But the really amazing thing about the game wasn't that South won it, but that the Warriors had to come from behind to win it.

THE GAME STARTED at 9:30 a.m. Friday with the mercury hovering around 27
degrees and the wind-chill factor making the temperature on the Astro-turf at the bottom of Huskie Stadium about five degrees. Nice day to run around in shorts, right?

But the cold wasn't what was bothering the Warriors. It was an inspired Wheaton Central team.

After a scoreless first half,
the Tigers became the second team in the tournament to score a goal against the Warriors. . .

but don't blame Barry Briggs.
The Wheaton goal came at the 10:41 mark of the third quarter.
Kirk Bostrum attempted a penalty kick after a South hand ball in the penalty area.

Briggs made a diving stop of the shot.

But the ball squibbed off to the left, and Bostrum drilled it into the net.

Just into the fourth quarter,
the Warriors got their act in full gear. Mark Goldschmidt, driving down the right sidelines, slammed an almost-impossible angle shot into the net off the left goalpost and behind goalie Kevin Lyons.

THEN CAME THE TICKET
TO THE FINALS — The man who delivered it was Fred Schuler. It all came about with 6:42 remaining in the game.

Taking a headed pass from Dan Derosse, Schuler headed the ball to yards into the net.

The matter was settled. South was getting a chance to defend its title.

South vs. Schurz

"We can't take them too lightly. They're an improved ball club since we last saw them."

THE WORDS are those of South's Gene Baker just prior to the championship clash with Schurz. The Warrior's first two games in the tournament were a testament to Baker's words.

Through two games, the Buildings had outscored their opponents 7-0 and seemed to be working extremely well as a team.

And the first few minutes of the title clash were evidence.
Keeping in mind that many coaches feel that Schurz quit
after an opponent scores a goal to get out of the picture — the ultimate in getting a team down early in the game.

AFTER JUST 34 SECONDS had elapsed in the game, Greg Fiegl did his thing against

Schurz goalie Leonardo Garcia.
Taking a pass down the center of the field from Mark Goldschmidt, he ripped one into the net past a falling Garcia to put some fire out of the Chicago team. . . right?

Well sort of, but not just yet.
Just 52 seconds later, Bill Draz scored on a breakaway down the center of the field. It was his fourth goal of the tournament.
And his last.

It was the Schurz goal that spelled that team's own doom.
From that point, there was a steady stream of Warriors in front of the Schurz goal and many of them came away with scores.

Mark Goldschmidt scored at the 8:55 mark of the first quarter for the eventual game-winner on a penalty kick.

It was Fred Schuler's turn.
Then David Fernandez's, and finally Mark's brother, Dave.
The Illinois state soccer
championship was staying right where it was.

So what was the difference? Did Schurz quit, or were the Warriors just simply too powerful?

"WE FINALLY FOUND our game and played it the way we knew we could," said Baker

Sidelights from DeKalb

There were four tournament records and other marks broken by the soccer Warriors this past weekend. They became the first team ever to win back-to-back
state soccer championships, and they broke the record for the most goals scored in a tournament by doing it ten times in three games.

They broke that record by shattering the record for the most goals in a single game, getting six in the championship against Schurz.

That also counted for the record for the most goals in a championship game.

Warrior Greg Fiegl broke the record for the quickest goal in tournament history, putting one past the Schurz goalie just 34 seconds into the championship game Saturday night.

Fiegl also broke the tournament assist record by helping out on three South goals in the tournament.

Perhaps the most astounding record that South set was that of getting 43 shots-on-goal in that championship match. That broke the Warriors' own single-

Fans turn out to greet 1977 state champions

Approximately 2,000 fans turned out yesterday afternoon to greet the conquering heroes
... the Granite City South soccer champions upon their return to Granite City after winning the title Saturday night in DeKalb.

The school pep band and many fans braved the cold weather to gather outside and greet the charter bus carrying the champs as it arrived at South's Memorial Gymnasium
at around 3:30 p.m.

Once inside the gym, the fans got a chance to hear from both coaches — Gene Baker and Mel Bunting — as well as from several of the players.

"The one thing that's different about this group of players," head coach Gene Baker said, "is the feeling that they have for each other. Many of them have been playing together for a long time and they've become pretty close."

"For a number of them,
yesterday (Saturday) was the last time they'll ever put on a South uniform. But they've had two chances to experience something that many high school athletes don't get — a chance to win."

"I'm the one who feels lucky.
I know that this season will be one that I'll always remember and think of as one of the best of my life."

for a two-point conversion and North extended its lead to 14-0.

West Frankfurt put the ball into play at its own 28.
The Steelers defense held and,
on fourth down, the Red Birds missed the ball, giving
North the pignik at the West
Frankfurt 15.

MIKE SHERMAN ran in for a touchdown and North Bauman added the extra point on kick for a 21-0 lead.

North tried an onside kick and the ball ended up in the Steelers' hands at the West Frankfurt 30-yard line.

The second half began with Tim Bauman kicking off to West Frankfurt. The Red Birds made no progress and punted to Bruce Wright, who ran to the 35.

PENALTIES pushed North back and West Frankfurt forced the Steelers to punt.

Mike Sherman booted the ball to the 26-yard line but a personal foul against North moved the ball to the 41 line.

The Red Birds then made two first downs, and a pass interference call gave them first territory but the defense held.

West Frankfurt went in for its first touchdown but the extra point was missed and the score was now 16-0.

Mike Sherman carried the kickoff to the 34-yard line and a personal foul against West Frankfurt gave North the ball at its 47.

North moved for two first downs as the third quarter ended.

THE NEXT PLAY the Steelers were moved back 15 yards for a clip West Frankfurt then held North.

On fourth down, Bruce Wright faked a punt and ran to the 11-
yard line.

Tim Dudley then ran 11 yards for a TD. Bauman missed the point, but North led 34-0 with 4:21 left.

WEST FRANKFORT moved
the ball swiftly into North territory but the defense held and North began running the clock down.

West Frankfurt held and got the ball once more with 1:35 left and drove for a TD. The extra point effort failed.

Bauman ran the kickoff to the 44-yard line and time continued to tick away.

Coach Jean Egan of West Frankfurt concluded, "We

North's Coach Tom Wyrostek had this to say: "The first half

'If it feels good, do it again.'

The dreams of so many had finally come true. They were in DeKalb. It was state tournament time. Time to really show who you were.

But for one particular group of guys, the going was just a little bit different. Most everybody already KNEW who they were. They were — and are — the Illinois State Soccer Champions. And they were here to defend their crown.

Their names? The Granite City High School South Soccer Warriors, to be exact. But it wasn't to be easy. There were two very close games at the start. Come-from-behind wins.

South 2, New Trier East 1. South 2, Wheaton Central 1. It seemed that that was the score of the hour.

That is, until Saturday night. That's when the state champs showed the fans exactly who they were ... and what they were capable of.

After the game, there was the usual hugging and kissing and crying (tears of happiness, of course). But there was one moment just prior to the ending of the game.

South Coach Gene Baker was taking his starters out one by one at the end of the game. Many of them were seniors who would never again don the red and black uniform of the soccer Warriors.

When South's goalie, Barry

Briggs, was taken out, he and Baker embraced on the sideline ... they had done it! Two years in a row!

There was joy. But one couldn't help noticing a brief hint of sadness in each one's eyes.

College and career data being expanded

"I don't know what I want to do with my life," is a commonly heard complaint of high school students.

In an effort to help young people make the decisions that will affect their total lives, high schools and the local community college have entered into an agreement that will provide much information concerning jobs, preparation needed for various jobs, and places where such preparation can be made.

Belleville Area College, through its computer system can provide students with interest testing, information about thousands of national and military jobs, job opening forecasts for ten years into the future, and information about local job openings.

Also, financial aids available to students who want to continue their education, information about community college courses and costs, and similar information about four-year colleges from throughout the nation.

Meeting at Belleville Area College to discuss the system and its capabilities have been Hazel Stanislawski, guidance counselor from Belleville East High School; Roy McConkey, career and vocational placement counselor at Granite City High Schools North and South; Tom Dailey, guidance director at Belleville West High School; Elmer Schrage, guidance director from Triad High School; Debbie Youngs, programmer for the system; and Frank Gornick, counseling director for Belleville Area College.

The first part of the program that the student usually encounters is the vocational interest test.

After the student answers 24 multiple-choice questions, he receives a computer printout listing six occupational interest work areas in priority established by his answers to the questions.

Social service, organizational, technical, and applied science, promotional work, scientific and creative are the categories.

He will also get a list of specific career titles that correlate to the list of interest areas.

Career information printouts describe in some detail duties, training requirements, working conditions, general employment outlook, general earnings levels, and where to write for additional information.

Students may ask for as many as six job descriptions on one request form.

Military job descriptions are taken from the most recent Department of Defense Military-Civilian Occupational Source Book.

Whenever possible, the civilian counterpart job title is used with the military job title, so that students will have a ready identification of jobs they are familiar with. Again, six job descriptions may be requested.

The computer is programmed to forecast annual openings for 400 jobs. The forecasts come from the latest Department of Labor Occupations Outlook Handbook in Brief. Six of these forecasts are available to each student.

The BAC system will soon have access to a manpower report presently being compiled by the college. With this information, students will be able to learn of potential job openings in their areas of interest in this region.

Students may make inquiries which will activate a search system in the computer to find financial aids to match their needs. This inquiry may be done either by the student describing himself or selecting an occupational field.

If there are no aids which match the specific student, he is automatically provided information on all general type aids.

Information concerning colleges includes such material as courses of study offered, college and community size, control (public or private, church affiliated, etc.), annual cost estimates, geographical location, graduation requirements, dates to apply for admission and transfer information.

According to BAC Counseling Director Gornick, the vocational information system is one of the most complete of its kind in the nation, but costs the student little to use. Schools already used into the system and which provide their students with its services are expected to be joined by others in District 52 (Belleville Area College district) in the near future, Gornick said.

Change rules for repaying veterans travel expenses

Veterans who are used to being reimbursed for travel expenses to and from Veterans' Administration medical facilities are finding that recent law changes may have restricted reimbursements, in certain cases.

The law now requires that VA obtain an annual income statement from veterans seeking reimbursement for travel to obtain treatment for law change-related disabilities. VA has waived this requirement for claimants 65 years or older, or those receiving disability compensation.

Still eligible for full cost-of-travel reimbursement are veterans who have been awarded compensation for service-connected disabilities.

Those who do not have a service-connected disability may be reimbursed for no more than the actual cost of travel, if VA determines that they are unable to afford the mode of transportation needed in their special circumstances.

The whose medical condition would permit him to travel by public transportation, for example, might be expected to pay for his own travel, while a person with the same income might be reimbursed if special travel arrangements — such as an ambulance — were required, it was explained.

Ability to pay is judged on the basis of income in relation to the needs of members in the family and the type of transportation needed. The current annual limits on income run from as low as $2,600 for an individual with no dependents who could travel by public transportation to as high as $11,900 for a veteran with more than six members in his family who requires transportation by ambulance.

For further information or assistance, veterans may contact Department of Veterans' Affairs Service Officer Freeman Clinarud Tuesday in the basement lobby of the Granite City Hall.

350 ATTEND PROGRAM

An estimated 350 parents and teachers from Granite City High Schools North and South attended a college night program North last week.

Henry Beiser, counselor at North, said the college representatives and parents seemed well pleased with the arrangements. Next year the program will be hosted by South.

Tips for winter driving

While most of winter's cold weather is still ahead, it's not too early for local drivers to review recommended measures for handling winter's seasonal driving difficulties, and Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer suggests that traction problems on snow and ice are a good starting point.

"Fortunately, we in Granite City aren't the only ones concerned about winter-slick street problems," Chief Veizer pointed out. "Winter driving research, conducted annually by the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards, has already given us sound information on how to start, go, turn and stop on ice and snow," he said.

NSC skid test recommendations are also endorsed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police and, according to Veizer, by road service crews who have to rescue stalled or ditched motorists who were not "winter-wise" in winter's ways.

Pulling traction is the key. A car is able to start and keep going in snow or on ice, and pulling traction is related directly to the kind of tires or traction aids that are used. NSC test findings have developed these facts:

Conventional snow tires offer only 28 per cent improvement in pulling power as compared with regular highway tires on ice; but they provide half again as much traction as regular tires on loosely packed snow.

Studded snow tires (in areas where their use is permitted) are about three times better than regular tires on ice.

Reinforced tire chains pull four times better than regular tires on snow; seven times better on ice.

If stuck in snow, turn the front wheels back and forth to push snow away from the tires. Shift to the highest gear, and, with a gentle foot on the throttle, try to ease out without spinning the wheels.

Stopping — a major problem on ice or packed and polished snow — also depends on tires or traction aids.

Conventional snow tires offer no advantage over regular highway treads in stopping on ice.

Studded snow tires, where they can be used, offer a 18 per cent improvement on ice.

Reinforced tire chains are best — cutting braking distance in half on glare ice.

Regardless of traction aids, "pump" your brakes to slow or stop. This technique helps to maintain steering control.

Chief Veizer said: "Don't be overconfident just because you have special tires or chains on the rear wheels. Traction aids are of little value in cornering unless they are used on all four wheels. Otherwise, the front end skids out and you lose steering control.

The way to steer is steady and smooth — anticipating all maneuvers well in advance.

Sudden lane changes or turns can put you into a spin."

Chief Veizer gave this final warning to all local drivers: "In no case can speeds on winter-slick roads begin to approach those on dry pavement regardless of the traction aids you use. You can see why the officers of our department take a dim view of drivers who don't know the way to adjust their speed to conditions — especially when conditions aren't the best."

Strong emphasis on continuing education

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is preparing to exercise a role of "strong leadership" in the area of continuing education, according to a report submitted Thursday to the SIUE Board of Trustees by SIUE President Kenneth A. Shaw.

"It is our plan to provide a broad range of learning avenues to all those who come to accept our philosophical conviction that education is essential to human growth at any age," Shaw said.

"We have a conviction that education, formal or otherwise, is indeed a lifelong process," the president explained.

"To cease to be actively curious about ourselves and the world in which we live is to cease to grow as persons and as citizens. Thus, we have an obligation to both the individual taxpayers who support us and to the society whose future strength depends upon us, to explore every way we can put this principle into realistic practice."

Dr. Shaw also emphasized that the nature of the region served by the University, coupled with the fact that until SIUE came into being there was no institution of public higher education reasonably accessible in the area, has caused the university to produce many program offerings and services oriented to part-time, older students.

The median age of SIUE students is now almost 28. The president said the university offers 228 courses at night and on Saturdays, with a current enrollment of part-time students totaling 3,809.

He indicated that Vice-President and Provost Earl Lazerson has appointed a Continuing Education Task Force, charged with the responsibility of "examining the issues and making recommendations on steps that should be taken in this (continuing education) area."

Specifically, the 20-member task force, representing academic schools and support units, the student body, the Office of Student Affairs, and University Alumni Services, has been directed to prepare a position paper covering purposes to be served, local area needs, potential clientele and programs, resources required, possible program formats and proposed organizational restructuring.

Robert Schultheis, professor of management in the School of Business, is chairman.

"In the meantime," the president said, "we have also established an Office of Adult Student Services, which deals with the full range of problems, needs and desires of those falling into the category of older students."

Dr. Shaw's report to the trustees included two detailed reports from Lazerson. One deals with the involvement of the university's regular academic schools in continuing education, and the other summarizes the activities of academic support units in the continuing education area.

The reports cite "a host of offerings" through the School of Business, School of Education, Graduate School, School of Humanities, School of Nursing, School of Dental Medicine, School of Social Sciences, the Delinquency Study and Youth Development Center, General Studies Division, Urban Studies Program, and the Office of Off-Campus Programs, which includes the Open University and the Office of Conferences and Institutes.

"Many more programs which will provide a wide range of educational opportunities and public service activities are in the planning stages," Vice-President Lazerson said in the report.

According to Dr. Shaw, one of the most significant activities in the planning stages is the taking of continuing education to labor organizations in the area.

"Many unions have negotiated contracts providing educational funds or benefits which are rarely used," he said.

"This project would attempt to increase awareness of educational opportunities and, where needs are justified, provide classes at convenient off-campus locations."

Plan Commission meets Thursday

A scheduled meeting of the Granite City Board of Appeals was cancelled last week due to a lack of business on the agenda. The city's Plan Commission meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 17, at 1:15 p.m. at 2301 Adams St.

Seven zoning requests and a request for annexation are on the Plan Commission agenda. Tony Manogian is requesting a special use permit to operate an insurance office at 2813 Madison Ave., which is zoned R-3 for single-family residential use.

Floyd Smith, 2823 Emzee Ave., is requesting C-1 commercial zoning to repair small engines and motors in his garage, which is in an R-3 district.

Robert Lombardi is requesting "B" business zoning to extend his business at 2267 State St., also in an R-3 district.

Roger Miller is requesting C-1 commercial zoning for the sale and display of safes in his garage at 2704 Johnson Road, which is in an R-1 single-family residential district.

Leo Konzen, attorney for the Dempsey-Adams firm, is requesting C-1 commercial zoning for 3725-29 Nameoki Road and 1508 Manley Avenue, property which presently is operated by Granite City Glass under a special use permit.

Billy Joe Voss, 1548 St. Clair Ave., is requesting C-1 commercial zoning to operate a janitorial service from his garage, which is in an R-2 single-family residential district.

Clay Winfield is requesting an R-3 zoning at the corner of West Pontoon Road and Briarcliff Drive to construct an eight-family apartment building. The property now is zoned R-2.

The Plan Commission also is to consider a request by Harrison Padgett to annex properties at 2530 Logan Ave., 2622 Old Route 3, and 2624 Old Route 3, into the city of Granite City.

Plan Commission recommendations then will be presented to the Granite City Council for official actions.

Health aspects of air pollution

(American Medical Association)

The problem of air pollution is much in the news in the 1970s. For people who live in metropolitan areas — which now means most of us — air pollution becomes more apparent all the time.

Cleanup efforts have made some progress, but the city air still is loaded with unpleasant and unhealthy particles.

The American Medical Association points out that there's little doubt that pollutants in the air are good for us. Just how serious a health problem is air pollution is a question still being studied. It has been associated with a number of physical ills.

We read about air pollution, but it seldom occurs to us that we can do something about it. Isn't air pollution merely a matter for the factory with the belching smokestack, or the apartment building with a smoky incinerator?

Actually, there are some things we all can do to reduce air pollution.

If everyone who operates an automobile would just make certain the engine is properly tuned and adjusted, a major source of air pollution would be considerably reduced. This will not only reduce air pollution, but also will save money on gasoline.

Community groups could make it a point to know air pollution sources and seek from elected representatives legislation to control the hazards — or enforcement of laws already on the books.

Keep the home furnace in good working order. Have it checked annually, both for your safety and for the sake of the community.

Leaves, trash and rubbish should not be burned in metropolitan areas. Arrange for them to be hauled away.

Prevention of air pollution is a matter that must be met by the whole community. Proper laws are required where voluntary actions are inadequate. Tight enforcement of these laws is essential.

We can anticipate that air pollution will continue to be much in the news in the years ahead. The problem will be alleviated much sooner if all of us become aware that it is serious, and all of us are involved in its ultimate solution.

'The Miser' seen by MHS students

Members of the Humanities IV Class at the Madison High School attended a performance of "The Miser" at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

They were accompanied by their instructor, John Harrison. "The Miser" is one of Moliere's funniest plays, according to Harrison.

The Humanities Program is an enriched English program including art, music, drama, dance and philosophy. It is a program for the able student, according to a school program.

Students attending were: Merle Castellini, Averyllis Dandridge, Ferri Echols, Debbie Ellis, Juan Gardner, Sherri Grzywacz, Christine Kosteci, Anthony Mangoff, Evelyn Newsome, Diane Palm, Jackie Riley, Ricky Robbins, Cecelia Sellers, Deborah Shearry and Karen Winters.

Mrs. Marguerite Connoles is director of the Humanities Program.

Richard Corbin is principal of the high school.

6-book series on history of Illinois

The first of six planned volumes on Illinois' long and diverse history has been issued. The University of Illinois Press has just published "Building for the Centuries: Illinois, 1865-1898," by John H. Keiser.

Professor of history and vice president for academic affairs at Sangamon State University, Springfield, he has written a descriptive history of the post-Civil War generation in Illinois and its march into the modern era.

The book is one of three commissioned by the Illinois Sesquiennial Commission (ISC) in its closing days to update the series of books published by the Illinois Centennial Commission in 1919 and 1920. The state was formed in 1818.

The recently commissioned works and the reprints of the centennial volumes now are parts of a University of Illinois Press publishing project. It will publish the six books, including three volumes of the "Centennial History of Illinois," for the Illinois Sesquiennial Commission and the Illinois State Historical Society.

A new introduction is being written for each volume. The Centennial books are: "The Illinois Country, 1673-1818," by Clarence W. Alvord; "The Frontier State, 1818-1848," by Theodore Calvin Pease; and "The Era of the Civil War, 1848-1870," by Arthur C. Cole.

"Building for the Centuries," volume four of the combined works, but the first to be released, will be followed by two books written by Donald F. Tingley and Arvahr Strickland. The yet unnamed volumes five and six will cover the years 1900 to 1958, the sesquiennial year.

Keiser's history emphasizes the modern era in Illinois, such names as Armour, McCormick, Field, Swift and Pullman, and such places as Chicago, Springfield and many more cities. He also discusses the big events of the era — the adoption of the Constitution of 1870, the Great Railroad Strike of 1877,

WATCH YOUR SPEED. Lt. Henry Oertel of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville police, demonstrates the use of a new radar speed gun purchased by SIUE. Two guns were obtained at $1,000 each and were placed in service on the campus last week to aid in enforcing auto speed limits. Effective at up to a mile, the guns provide a visible record of a vehicle's speed.

SLEEPS DURING THEFT
About $430 cash was stolen from the wallet of Ronald Sutherland, 2213 Lincoln Ave., while the victim slept last week. Sutherland awoke to find the front door open. His wallet had been taken from his trousers which were hanging on the closet door. The wallet's contents were scattered on the floor and the empty wallet was thrown in a living room chair. A desk and closet were searched. There were no signs of forced entry.

Newman will write a general introduction for the books that will appear in initial volume. Illinois history scholars will write the introductions for the reprint volumes.

A WORD TO THE ENERGY-WISE

Your windows need insulation too

Hopefully by now you've gotten the message about insulating your attic. But don't overlook windows and doors. They need insulation, too. A single pane of glass allows serious heat loss. But storm sash or double-glazed windows act as insulation, keeping heat inside your home and saving energy.

Be sure your storm windows are well fitted and caulked all around to keep an air-tight seal between you and the cold air outdoors. Weatherstrip both the storm door and inside door and caulk around door and window frames. You can test for weather-tightness by running a lighted match around the frames: the flicker of the flame will tell you where outside air is penetrating.

Aid at 'Y' on senior tax relief

The Bellevue Area College Retired Senior Volunteer Program staff is reminding persons who are 65 and over or who are disabled that Dec. 31 is the deadline for filing retroactive "circuit breaker" tax relief forms.

The sales tax reimbursement and property tax relief are designed to assist aging or disabled persons of limited income. After the Dec. 31 deadline, persons may file for the previous year only.

Forms for the years 1972-76 are available in the RSVF office located in the Tri-City Area YMCA, 2001 Edison Ave., Granite City, Ill. The RSVF staff is trained to assist persons wishing to file.

"You may be eligible for a cash refund from the state of Illinois," a spokesman relates. "You would be eligible if—

1. "You or your spouse are 65 years of age or older as of Jan. 1, 1977 (or Jan. 1 following the year claimed).
2. "Or if you are disabled.
3. "Your income, or combined income of you and your spouse, was no more than $10,000 per year.
4. "You lived in Illinois for the entire of the year claimed.
5. "You rent an apartment, rent a home, own a home, own a home or mobile home, or live in a nursing home."

The following information is needed to file out the forms for each year:

1. Date of birth and your spouse's date of birth.
2. Social Security numbers.
3. Total amount of Social Security received each year.
4. Total amount of Supplemental Security Income (SSI), railroad retirement, veterans' pension, annuity and all other pension checks received.
5. Total amount of public aid received, not including food stamps or medical assistance.
6. Total amount of dividends received on stocks and bonds.
7. Total amount of interest received on savings accounts.
8. Total amount of real estate tax paid, or if a homeowner, rent paid or, if a homeowner, real estate taxes paid by publication.

"Many persons still do not know about the 'circuit breaker,'" said Mrs. Norma Mendoza, assistant director of RSVF.

"Because of the Dec. 31 deadline for previous years, we urge people to pass this information to older persons, neighbors."

"Quad-City may phone our office staff, Norma, Marge or Cindy, at 876-3223 for more information or appointments."

Play features

Miss Freedman

Winifred Freedman, a junior at Northwestern University, was in the cast of Felicien Marceau's "The Egg," the first production of the Northwestern University Theater's 50th anniversary season. The latefall production was given on the university's Evanston campus. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Freedman, 2543 Cleveland Blvd.

In this French comedy, written in the 1950s, Miss Freedman played the parts of Mlle. Duval and Mme. Berthollet. The play centers around the individual's attempts to deal with "the system." The protagonist frequently addresses the audience on his problems of getting into the egg, which represents the "system."

The show had its American premiere in Chicago in the late 1950s. It appeared on the Broadway stage in New York in 1961 and was named one of Broadway's 10 best shows of the 1961-62 season.

Northwestern, the only private university in the Big Ten, is comprised of 11 professional, graduate and undergraduate schools on campuses in Chicago and Evanston. The university has 120,000 alumni nationwide.

Office being built for new port storage area

During a special meeting last week, the Tri-City Regional Port District board awarded a $40,685 contract to G.H. Sternberg & Co. to construct an office building at the south end of the port property. The structure will be leased to Triple-T Chemicals, Inc. in conjunction with new Triple-T dock and conveying equipment already under construction.

To date, the port board has awarded contracts totaling $1,311,329 for construction of three tanks and three domes for storage of fertilizers and for a conveyor system.

Still to be awarded are contracts for a truck scale and for the conveyor system, electrical wiring and controls.

The new Triple-T facilities at the port are made possible by a three-party agreement. Granite City Terminals Corp. is providing river terminal service for inbound products, the Tri-City Port is providing the land, a new conveyor, the office building and a truck scale, and Triple-T is constructing the storage tanks and buildings and an additional conveyor piping system.

ERA is convention topic

Liz Neely, Linda Beane and Norma Mendoza of Granite City, and Mary Clark of Edwardsville, members of the Metro-East Chapter of the National Organization for Women, have returned from the Illinois State NOW Convention held at Taft Field Campus of Northern Illinois University near Oregon, Ill.

The highlight of the convention was the appearance of Mrs. Eleanor Smeal, national NOW president and her message given on the Equal Rights Amendment. The delegates reported:

Judy Goldsmith of Wisconsin, a national board member of NOW, also attended and gave the keynote address.

In addition to several business meetings and planning sessions, the following new state officers were elected: president, Naomi Ross, Evanston; vice-president for chapter development, Sharon Romjoo, Chicago; action vice-president, Liz Neely, Granite City; secretary, Anne Courtney, Aurora; and treasurer, Nancy Burton, Chicago.

Such workshops as chapter development, self-help clinic, problems of employed mothers, maternity benefits and getting into politics were offered.

In Mrs. Smeal's ERA message, she stated, "The anti's have wrapped themselves in a flag of pro-family when in reality the anti's have voted against such resolutions as child abuse care, shelters for abused women, displaced homesteaders bill, and other pro-women issues at the State IWY conferences."

"NOW is for women's rights and has no hidden agenda. ERA is NOW's number one priority and NOW would take a front seat in the fight for ratification to the ERA in Illinois," she added.

The convention ended on a note of unification between national and state NOW. The national NOW president left the convention with the words, "NOW represents the average woman and the average woman, as we do, wants a fair shake. NOW representing all women, is on the front lines fighting for profound human rights issues," the local delegates noted.

Charged with beating sisters

Andrew Lee Jones, 18, of 1112 Market St., Venice, was charged with two counts of battery after he allegedly beat his two sisters at 3 a.m. Sunday in front of his home.

His sisters, Margaret Scott, 210 Selb St., Venice, and Edith Jones, 1112 Market St., Venice, said they were in an auto with their brother when an argument developed as the auto stopped in front of the Jones' home, the brother allegedly beat one sister in the auto and then the other sister outside the car.

Venice police arrested him at the scene for questioning, but decided to release him pending further investigation. As they were driving Jones home, a disturbance ensued during which Jones allegedly cursed officers and refused to get out of the police car.

When he did get out, he continued to curse policemen, so they arrested him again, officers reported. Force had to be used to get him back in the police car, during which Jones suffered a scratch on his left elbow, according to official reports.

Margaret Scott suffered swelling to her right cheek and around her right eye.

3 hurt on West 20th

Three men were injured when the car of Gerald Becker, 41, Wood River, stopped for a traffic light on West 20th Street at Missouri Avenue (old Route 151) and was struck from behind by the auto of Edward Hyde Jr., Florissant, Mo., according to official reports. Hyde was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Becker and a passenger in his auto, Eric Becker, 19, Carbondale, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they were treated for back and neck pains. X-rays were taken and they were released.

Hyde also was taken by ambulance to the hospital where he was admitted for observation of a head injury and pain in his lips, right wrist and left hand.

Crackdown on cars' mileage

A Springfield car dealer is a beneficiary of one of two settlements reached by Attorney General William J. Scott's Consumer Protection Division in complaints relating to auto "odometer rollbacks."

The dealer, Huber Pontiac, will receive payment of $1,500 from Carol Bridgewater of Barry, Ill., as a result of Huber's being deceived as to the actual mileage on a 1976 Chevrolet Monte Carlo traded to the agency. Miss Bridgewater also agreed to pay a $275 civil penalty to the state.

In another odometer case, Reuben Calhoun of Mason City agreed to pay to the state a civil penalty of $500. A Salem, Ill., car dealer — deceived as to the actual mileage on a car traded in — declined restitution. In the complaint against Calhoun, the Consumer Protection Division alleged that he had provided its office false information in connection with the inquiry into the "odometer rollbacks."

Both settlements were approved by Sangamon County Circuit Judge James T. Lordin.

Collide in Venice

Mrs. Anna Freeman, 50, of 74 Greater Homes, Madison, was injured when her car and the auto of Helen Anderson, 49, of 615 Salveter St., Venice, collided at Market Street and Mercedia Avenue in Venice at 4:10 p.m. Friday.

A fence at the home of Willie Griggs, 1040 Market St., Venice, was damaged in the accident.

Mrs. Freeman was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was treated for injuries to her left forearm and wrist and was released.

DRIVER ARRESTED

Dennis Barton, 25, Centralia, was arrested at 8:50 p.m. Saturday when police stopped his car at 22nd and State streets. He was charged with reckless driving, driving while his license was suspended and speeding (55 miles-per-hour in a 30 m.p.h. zone).

Jury convicts Gibson

A jury in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville Thursday night found Jerry Gibson, 25, of 2022 Missouri Ave., guilty of reckless conduct in connection with the shooting of Billy Creek, 26, of 2128 Dewey Ave., at Gibson's home Sept. 21.

AUTO INSURANCE CALL
SAM WOLF Realty, Inc.

The jury found Gibson innocent of aggravated battery, but guilty of "the reckless conduct, a class A misdemeanor."

Gibson could receive up to one year at Vandalia Correctional Center and/or up to a $1,000 fine. Circuit Judge Joseph Barr ordered a pre-sentence investigation and has not set a date for sentencing.

The jury deliberated about five hours before returning its verdict at 8:30 p.m. Thursday. Witnesses during the four-day trial testified Creek had been in Gibson's home, a fight had developed, Creek went outside, came back in with a gun and fired a shot into Gibson's kitchen floor.

They fought over the gun and two or three shots were fired, Creek being shot in the abdomen. He also had a wound to his left shoulder a cut to his forehead, testimony and evidence indicated.

Gibson suffered a dislocated right thumb and a bite to his right hand, according to official reports.

Madison County Assistant State's Attorney Stephanie Robbins presented the prosecution case and Gibson was defended by Attorney M. Joseph Hill, who practices in Granite City.

Auxiliary installs historian

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 113 installed Lynn Cuvor as its historian during the unit's regular meeting in the Legion Post last week. The installation was conducted by Loretta Goeller.

President Doris Hitchcock conducted the meeting during which Mrs. Goeller and Bonnie Jacob reported on a 22nd District meeting at Fairmont City attended by six local auxiliary members.

Mrs. Helen Hawkins reported she would serve chili to veterans all day Friday, which was Veterans' Day.

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the group decided to cancel the November meeting, which would have been held Nov. 23.

The next meeting will be Dec. 14 and a Christmas party will be held. Each member attending is requested to bring a $2 gift for exchange.

Mrs. Cuvor was hostess for a social hour after the meeting, which 13 members attended.

Mrs. Novacich heads society

Mrs. Elizabeth Novacich was elected to serve as president of the Metro East Organ Society at a meeting held at Jack Johnson's Music Store, last week.

Others elected were Frank David, vice-president; and Mrs. Francis David, secretary-treasurer.

The retiring president, Fred Johnson, conducted the session. Jack Johnson gave a few instructions for beginners after the business discussions, for the benefit of the new members. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent listening to musical selections.

Also attending were Clarence Shipley, Shirley Ganschenut, Mary Arnold and Mary Hartman all of Collinsville, and local residents, Fay Smolich, Carolyn Stearns and Thelma Munday.

Homemakers attend yule craft session

A Christmas craft session for members of the Granite City Unit, Madison County Homemakers Extension Association, was held last week in the home of Mrs. Mary Zikovich, 15 Devon Hill Lane.

Mrs. Martha Taylor and Mrs. Helen Parks served as instructors and explained ways to make Christmas beaded balls, corn husk angels, pine cone wreaths and crocheted decorations.

The hostess served refreshments with coffee and tea. Members attending discussed the unit Christmas party to be held at the Heritage House in St. Louis. Reservations for a meal costing $3.75 are due Tuesday with Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt at 931-2140 and those attending are to bring a $2 gift for exchange, it was noted.

Present at the craft day were Mesdames Helen Parks, Madge Ramsey, Wanda Scheve, Wilma Owe, LaNell Lessey, Hazel Cline, Elizabeth Schmidt, Freddy McElroy, Marcie Johnson, Mary Chacki, Laura Travis, Mary Blankenship, Martha Taylor, Rosalie Johannmeier and a guest Mrs. Doe Tutka.

Heavy tax aid to aliens with sponsors—Percy

Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) today made public previously undisclosed estimates showing that abuses of the nation's welfare system by aliens cost taxpayers about $7.2 million a year in five states alone. The report of the U.S. General Accounting Office shows that over three-fifths of all aliens who collect payments under one of the major federal welfare programs—Supplemental Security Income—do so within one year of entering the United States, even though entry nominally requires that aliens not become public charges. Highlights of the report include the following:

A. Of aliens who collect welfare under the SSI program an estimated eight per cent enroll within 30 days of arrival in this country; 41 per cent enroll within six months of arrival, and 63 per cent enroll before residing in this country for one year. All told, 96 per cent of those who enroll do so within three years of arrival.
B. Of all aliens over 65 entering the U.S. between July 1, 1972, and June 30, 1975, one out of three was collecting welfare payments under the SSI program by the end of 1975.

C. In a five-state breakdown of the SSI program alone:
—In California, 12,627 aliens collect a total of $31.8 million annually under the program.
—In Florida, 12,542 aliens collect $18.5 million annually.
—In Illinois, 2,980 aliens collect $4.5 million annually.
—In New York, 4,444 aliens receive $11.2 million annually.
—In New Jersey, 3,718 aliens receive $5.4 million annually.

D. In these five states, over 37,000 aliens collect SSI welfare payments of $72.3 million annually.
Experts agree that nearly all of these aliens qualify because of age or previous disability, not because of disabilities sustained in this country, Percy said.

These estimates resulted from a six-month study of the SSI program, requested by Percy in April and conducted by the General Accounting Office with assistance from the Immigration and Naturalization Service in the Department of Justice and the Social Security Administration in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

GAO experts analyzed over 23,000 individual cases and then used sophisticated statistical techniques to arrive at overall estimates.
Sen. Percy said the dollar figures are probably low because they do not include Medicaid payments. Enrolling for SSI generally makes an alien automatically eligible for Medicaid.

SSI is a federal-state welfare program which distributes over $6.4 billion annually. The program provides payments for low-income persons who are aged, blind or disabled. Individuals are eligible for payments of up to $177.80 monthly. Current law permits

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Mon., Nov. 14, 1977 Page 23

aliens legally admitted for permanent residence to begin collecting SSI 30 days after arriving in the U.S. if they otherwise qualify.

"The American taxpayer simply cannot be expected to support persons who have never contributed significantly to the American economy," Percy said.

"The abuses by some aliens and their sponsors reflect badly on the overwhelming majority of aliens who add so very much to our society and seek nothing more than the opportunity to become U.S. citizens."

Percy said many aliens apply for welfare at the urging of their American sponsors, who are often relatives and intend to use welfare payments as part of the family income.

As revealed earlier this year in a CBS-TV "Sixty Minutes" expose, sponsors often openly admit to signing an affidavit of support for an alien while intending to enroll the alien for welfare soon after arrival.

Percy described one case in which a New York psychiatrist signed an affidavit promising to support her elderly mother if admitted into the U.S. Six months after obtaining permanent resident status, the mother applied for $154 a month in assistance from the New York Department of Social Services because she said her daughter could no longer support her.

Percy said he will propose legislation to correct abuses of the SSI program by aliens. He will propose a five-year residency requirement for SSI eligibility and a requirement to make sponsors' affidavits of support legally enforceable. "It is time to place the responsibility for an alien's support squarely on the shoulders of the person who promises support—the alien's sponsor—not the American taxpayer," he concluded.

Crane to address Republicans' rally

Congressman Philip Crane will be featured speaker at a Republican rally, cocktail party and dance Sunday, Nov. 20, at the Madison County Fireman's Hall, 800 Collinsville Road, from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. Crane is regarded by many as one of the most ardent speakers in Congress. He is national chairman of the American Conservative Union and a leading opponent of the proposed Panama Canal treaty. Cong. Crane's topics will include the canal and the advantages of an across-the-board tax reduction.

Other guests and speakers will include Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal, Jim Skelton, a candidate for state treasurer, Sharon Sharro, a candidate for secretary of state, State Representative Everett Steele and State Rep. Dwight Friedrich. Madison County's Republican chairman, Dr. Edward Ragdale, says this may be "the largest Republican event in Madison County in some time." Ragdale indicated that candidates for Madison County treasurer and sheriff may announce their plans at the rally.

CONG. PHILIP CRANE

Music will be provided by the John Fornasewski Band of Granite City. Tickets are $7.50 and can be obtained from Republican officials and committeemen or at the door. Funds raised will be used in next year's campaign in Madison County, Dr. Ragdale said.
